- Canadian Amos Garrett is one of the world's pre-eminent guitarists, praised by the likes of the late Chet Atkins, Mark Knopfler and Richard Thompson. Amos Has worked with some of the music scenes top artists - Bonnie Raitt, Stevie Wonder, and Maria Muldaur - to name a few.
- His expressive, deep baritone voice, full of warmth and sly innuendo, is as distinctive as his guitar playing. And suits the music of Percy Mayfield to perfection. The combination of Amos's voice and passion for this music may well make this album Amos's Masterpiece.
- The object of Garrett's tribute is one of America's great songwriters, who has been called "The Poet Laureate of the Blues". Percy Mayfield's hits include Hit the Road Jack and Please Send Me Someone to Love; his songs have been recorded by almost every major R&B artist, including Ray Charles, B.B. King, Jimmy Witherspoon, Aretha Franklin, and Etta James.
- Amos Garrett is one of Stony Plain's signature artists and a Juno Award winner. He tours frequently and is a fixture at major festivals, including the Edmonton Folk Festival, where he has fronted the 'house band' since the event began.
