

The Blues Soul of Billy Boy Arnold

“Billy Boy Arnold’s talent as a songwriter, singer, harp master and blues historian is still in full swing and here, on this album, he demonstrates his flair and love for many different facets of the blues. This recording is surely a remarkable achievement.”

— Duke Robillard

- Billy Boy Arnold is one of the last of the legendary Chicago Blues harmonica players. In addition to his solo releases, he recorded with Bo Diddley in the Fifties and has been covered by David Bowie, The Yardbirds and The Blasters.
- Produced by Duke Robillard and backed by stellar musicians, including the Roomful Of Blues horns, this release showcases a brilliant artist still in his prime.
- Billy Boy was inducted into the Blues Hall of Fame in 2013.
