Ray Bonneville

Roll It Down                    SPCD 1285

- ▶▶ One of Canada's most acclaimed roots music artists releases the follow up to his Juno Award winning 'Gust Of Wind' (Best Blue Album 1999)
- ▶▶ Roll It Down Rays' fifth album, is co-produced by Colin Linden
- ▶▶ Based in Montreal, Ray has spent the last thirty years performing and living in cities like Paris (where he often plays Memphis Slim's famous club), New Orleans (where he learned much about groove based music) and Nashville (where he often co-writes).
- ▶▶ Ray's songs have been recorded by Sue Foley (including a duet with Lucinda Williams), Ronnie Hawkins, Hart Rouge, The Burns Sisters, Steve Hill and many others.
- ▶▶ Roll It Down will be supported by CD release dates as follows:
  - March 27 – Toronto, Hugh's Room
  - March 29th – Ottawa, National Library
  - April 1 to 10 – Maritime tour
  - May 2 to 12 – Western tourPlus release dates in Montreal, Quebec City and summer festivals across Canada.
- ▶▶ "Bonneville works the blues-rock-country vein better than most anyone. He sings engagingly, but with more spunk than a Clapton, and both his guitar and harmonica playing pack quiet power." Down Beat
