Big Dave Mclean

Blues From The Middle

- ◆ Big Dave is a veteran Prairie Blues artist who's been playing his own brand of passionate blues since the early seventies. He's influenced a generation of Prairie artists including Colin James and Wide Mouth Mason.
- ◆ 'Blues From The Middle' is his fourth release but the first recorded in his hometown of Winnipeg. His red hot working band provides perfect backup with help from special guests Sue Foley, Duke Robillard and Graham Guest.
- ◆ Big Dave's main influence is Muddy Waters. He pays tribute in the song "Muddy Waters For President" which muddy had intended to record just before he passed away.
- ◆ We at Stony Plain believe this is one of the best blues recordings to come out of Canada. Big Dave is the real thing.
- ◆ 'Big Dave's been the quintessential behind-the-scene Bluesman. He's done more to shape the western Canadian Blues scene than perhaps any other artist'. - BILLBOARD
